

Event Zero Report

The Inaugural event of GDSC 2023-2024, named "Event Zero," unfolded on 27-08-2023 via Google Meet from 8:00 pm to 9:15 pm. The occasion commenced with an introductory session led by Mr. Adarsh Varghese Manu, providing attendees with a comprehensive understanding of GDSC and its potential developmental benefits. Following this, Philanta Gomez offered a brief retrospective of the previous year's activities, spotlighting key events such as "Lock-in." An unexpected revelation by Adarsh about the marquee event of the year, "Google Cloud Study Jams," added an element of excitement. The event's highlight featured Mr. Vishak Bobby, an ex-GDSC member and acting advisor, who shared his personal GDSC journey, workplace experiences, and the advantages he derived. A protracted Q&A session allowed attendees to actively engage, seeking insights and guidance. In summary, Event Zero emerged as a monumental success, drawing substantial participation and enthusiasm. The event effectively initiated GDSC 2023-2024, steering it onto a promising trajectory for the forthcoming year.
