Lyrics:–
The day i cried, carrying a back pack
With tears in my eyes all through the way looking back
I was leaving my mom, i think for the first time
But little did i know t'was gaining more than one.

You are my standing lifeline
When no one ever could keep my life bright.
You my friend, the way you allay me.
I wonder, is there someone who could do the same?

You hold me tight, while im down falling down falling
You wipe my tears , like my mother do while im crying
You my angel, You made me me...(2)

I wish you a Happy Teachers Day
I wish you a Happy Teachers Day
I wish you a Happy... more happy days to live
