- All the squad members were made conveners of a particular day in a week with around 10-12 teaching/non-teaching members from other departments assisting them.
- Critical points were identified in the campus and during the lunch break time (12:30 pm to 1:15 pm) allotted faculties (according to their allotted duty on a particular day) go to their respective points and any sort of ragging process happening in the campus is avoided.
- Separate staff in charges of Marian Engineering college buses were also allotted by taking in care of the boarding point of the faculty. Faculties who were boarding the bus in the initial points were given preference to monitor any sort of ragging happening in the buses. If any sort of activity has been reported, he is given permission to take action immediately.
- Due to a series of unprecedented events taking place in the First year block of Marian Engineering college, the College authorities constituted a squad to track any illicit activities in the first year block. The Members will have to monitor the students in the first year block (All floors) in the lunch break time.
